

Career planning Seminar

The main objective of the seminar is to support participants in their job application processes - especially when aiming for a position in an international cooperation.

It starts with a self-assessment of the participants. Participants will analyze their skills, interests and talents.

In the second part of the seminar we will learn how to write an English resume and cover letter for a job application.

The final part of the seminar deals with the job interview process. Participants will practice interviews in form of role plays and learn how to present themselves favorably when applying for a job in an international corporation.

The seminar is held in English.
